LEGISLATIVE DEBATE,
ON THE BILL
To Repeal the Act of Incorporation
OF THE
N. C. R. R. COMPANY.

REMARKS OF MR. DARGAN, OF ANSON.

MR. SPEAKER:—I arise to define the position that I occupy upon this question. I represent a constituency that has no interest in the North Carolina Rail Road. Nature has so fixed our position, that we are entirely dependant on South Carolina for a market, and were I to consult the pecuniary interest, alone, of my constituents, I would say that they were opposed to this road in every shape. I freely discussed this subject during my political canvass, and I expressed myself then, as I do now, that had I been a member of the last Legislature, I would have voted against that measure. But that is not now the question; it is one of much higher importance. Shall North Carolina repudiate her solemn and plighted faith? I am surprised to see the question gravely debated in this House, whether this Legislature has the power to annul a solemn contract entered into between the State, as one party, and the Stockholders of the North Carolina Rail Road Company, on the other part. Now I hold that until the Stockholders have abused or violated the franchise granted to them by the last Legislature, it would be unconstitutional and downright repudiation for a subsequent Legislature to repeal that act. If the Stockholders abuse the franchises granted them or violate the provisions of the Charter, the only manner in which they can be reached will be for the Attorney General to file a quo warranto against them, alledging the misuser, and let it be the subject of Judicial investigation; and if it be found that they have violated the charter, they will be restrained from a further exercise of their corporate privileges. This is the only remedy I know of.

I hope and trust that the vile blot of repudiation may never stain the escutcheon of the old North State; but that she may ever keep her plighted faith sacred; and although her soil is poor and sterile, that her honor may ever be bright and shining.

The stain of repudiation rests upon some of our sister States as a national disgrace, which neither time nor change can efface. I hope that we may never follow their inglorious example, for if we do, we would drive many of our most noble sons from our confines.

I hope in conclusion, that the Bill introduced by the gentleman from Wayne will be unanimously rejected.

In winding up our sketch of this highly interesting discussion, we would express regret that our notes are not sufficiently copious, to enable us to present, in full, the remarks of Messrs. Saunders and Brogden. The former gentleman will probably take occasion, at an early day, to speak more at length and will then write out his remarks for the Press. We content ourselves, for the present, with copying the following abstract from the "Standard's" reports:

Mr. Saunders regretted that this proposition had been offered to the House; regretted it not on his own account, but account of the mover. But he felt proud to see from every quarter, the friends and foes of the Railroad coming up to sustain the faith of the State. The gentleman from Wayne [Mr. Brogden] had made allusion to a Railroad Convention held in Goldsborough; but he was sorry to say that neither he nor his colleague had attended that Convention. He knew that his arguments in favor of Internal Improvements had produced an effect among the farmers of Wayne. Mr. S. alluded to the decision of the Supreme Court with regard to chartered rights, and was glad to hear the gentleman from Martin subscribe to the correctness of the doctrine. The objection he raised, that the bill was not passed by a majority of all the representatives of the people, was not a good one. The law had been passed by a majority of a quorum present, and this was the constitutional majority; an absolute majority was nothing at all. Mr. S. then alluded to the insinuation of fraud by the stockholders. If the least shadow of fraud should be discovered, he, for one, would go for giving up the charter. The conditions of the charter had been complied with so far. The President and Directors had been appointed and five dollars per share paid in. He inquired if the gentleman from Wayne was willing that the stockholders should loose what they have already paid in. The conditions of the charter had all been complied with, and he should endeavor to maintain the faith of the State. He heard something of repudiation, and characterized it as a damnable doctrine. He had heard the opinion of it abroad; and it was there considered a national disgrace.

Mr. S. went on to speak of the Railroad system in England and European countries. He said he would put in the possession of the gentleman from Wayne, the report of Parliament on Rail Roads, and if he could see the *Rail*roads in England, he thought even he [Mr. Brogden] would become an Internal Improvement man. Mr. S. said the increased tax in the State was upon the rich and not upon the poor; he challenged any one to show that the revenue act of 1848–9 added one cent to the tax of the poor man. He then alluded to his position on Internal Improvements as far back as 1815–16. He voted for all these projects. At that time, every western man voted for everything the east wanted. The west were hemmed in, and had no easy mode of transportation. He mentioned the fact that the transportation of the block of marble intended for the Washington Monument, had cost from the quarry in Lincoln to Raleigh, more than would carry it from Liverpool via New York.

Mr. S. went on to say that the representatives of the people of North Carolina were not ready to sacrifice the faith of the State. The question with them is, can the charter be amended, so as to facilitate the operations of the Company. The books of the Company were open to inspection, and the fullest opportunity should be given to satisfy every one that the conditions of the charter were complied with. He should be ashamed to acknowledge North Carolina if repudiation was to be the policy of the State. Upon this subject he spoke strongly because he felt strongly.

Mr. Brogden said, the remarks of the gentleman from Wake had not at all surprised him. The gentleman had been in a foreign country, under a high salary, and it was not astonishing if he came back with a slight liking for royal notions. Mr. B. quoted from several documents before him.—He said he considered the anti-internal improvement doctrine as the original platform of the Democratic party in North Carolina. He went for maintaining republican principles in all their purity, and did not wish to be led off by distinguished leaders. Mr. B. made some allusions to the Rolesville letter of Mr. Saunders, and the pledges he had given the people of Newbern with respect to the extension of the North Carolina Railroad to that town. Mr. B. continued his remarks at some length.

Mr. Sherrard was willing that the bill should be laid on the table and that the matter should be investigated. He had been informed on good authority that fraud had been committed—that the stockholders, many of them, were irresponsible men, and could not pay in their stock. He represented a constituency that believed laws which benefitted a few at the expense of the many, were anti-Democratic. He was opposed to Railroads, and wished an investigation to be had into the proceedings of the Company. He was as anxious to maintain the Constitution and the faith of the State as any man. He then went on to say that the people of Wayne had confidence in the gentleman from Wake. [Gen. Saunders,] and delighted to honor him. He was willing that the bill should be laid on the table, in order that an investigation may be had.

Mr. Saunders alluded to the Rolesville letter, and thanked God that he was not responsible to the gentleman from Wayne for his conduct here. The imputation of fraud on the Company, was a foul calumny. He stood there as a director and stockholder and threw back the insinuation. The 160 subscribers in Wake were ready to pay their subscription to-morrow. The gentleman had been guilty of an insinuation against over 1000 citizens of North Carolina, who were stockholders in the North Carolina Railroad Company. He went on to deny that he had swerved from the Democratic platform. He had always been in favor of a judicious system of Internal Improvements. He replied to the gentleman from Wayne, [Mr. Sherard,] and said that he admitted the binding nature of the contract, and only wished to inquire into the operations of the Company; if that was his wish, why had he not introduced a resolution of inquiry, and he would have voted for it. He was anxious that the fullest investigation should be made.

FOR THE REGISTER.

ORANGE COUNTY COURT.

The County Court having met on Monday, and a majority of the Justices of the county being present, Sidney Smith, Esq., arose and addressed the court in a short and eloquent speech on the life and characted of Priestly H. Mangum, deceased, and concluded by offering the following Preamble and Resolutions; which were unanimously adopted :—

WHEREAS, it has pleased Divine Providence to take from us our much respected and duly lamented Fellow-citizen, Priestly H. Mangum Esq., and this Court sympathizing with the family of the deceased and the public in the death of so good and respectable a man, is desirous of certifying its esteem and respect for his memory.

Resolved, By a majority of the Justices of Orange now in session, that we have heard with deep regret of the death of Priestly H. Mangum Esq.—since the last Term of this court.

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Mangum the County of Orange has been deprived of the services of a long tried and faithful Public servant as County Attorney.

Resolved, That for virtue, integrity and fidelity to his engagements, both in public and private life, Mr. Mangum was pre-eminently distinguished; that his loss will be deeply felt by a large circle of friends—by whom he was so much respected.

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be entered on the minutes of this Court and be published in the Hillsboro' Democrat, Recorder, Raleigh Standard and Register.

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST GOV. QUITMAN.—The U. S. Court at New Orleans is proceeding to demand the presence of the Governor in that city, to answer certain charges there preferred against him, regarding the Cuban expedition. The Governor is ready and willing to undergo any examination when his official term expires, and will voluntarily do so now, if he can lawfully absent himself from the seat of government without detriment to the public interests, and in obedience to the requirements of the Constitution.—Mississippian of Nov. 15.

DAILY ISSUE.

Sunday Morning, Dec. 1st.

ERRATA :—Two unfortunate typographical errors occurred in our Editorial leader of yesterday. In the 3rd paragraph, 5th line from the end of it, for "character," read charter. Fourth line from the bottom of the column, for "consultation," read "Constitution."—Our proof sheets are read so late at night, that it is not surprising mistakes should sometimes creep in.

THE VEXED QUESTION.

In continuation of the very hurried observations, which we submitted, on yesterday, it may be mentioned, as an additional recommendation of the position which Col. Joyner's Resolutions propose to assume for the State of North Carolina, that it harmonizes so well with that taken by the "Union and Southern Rights" party in Georgia, during the late exciting campaign there. The returns thus far received from that State fully warrant the assertion that that party have carried the State by an overwhelming majority; and it may safely be assumed that the voice of Georgia—thoroughly Southern as she is, in interests, in feeling and in character—is a fair exponent of the general sentiment of the South. It is all-important, therefore, that North Carolina should act in concert with her sisters.

The material portion of the creed of the party, in Georgia, to whom we have referred, is included in the following resolution, adopted at some one of their primary meetings :

Resolved, That we are in favor of acquiescing in the legislation of Congress, and waiting to see whether the compromise made by that legislation be observed in good faith by all parties, East, West, North and South. But while we are thus willing to acquiesce and to wait, we think it will be proper for the Convention to declare, not by way of menace, but rather as the authentic promulgation of a fact, the existence of which we cannot in the least doubt, that if Congress shall undertake to legislate aggressively upon our rights, by the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, or the interdiction of the slave trade between the states, or the enactment of the Wilmot proviso, or the repeal of the fugitive slave law—the people of Georgia will not submit, but will with united voice resist, though that resistance should create a dissolution of the Union.

This is precisely the ground upon which we desire to see our Legislature take a stand, and precisely the ground, it will be seen, upon which Col. Joyner's resolutions propose to unite us.

We have no other wish, we may state, once for all, in connection with this subject, than that North Carolina should take a stand worthy of her reputation for conservatism and decision. We care but little what particular individual may be benefitted, or otherwise, by the aspect which the question may ultimately assume in our midst. Come weal or wo, our destinies are linked with those of North Carolina, in or out of the Union!

ALMOST AN ACCIDENT.

The Hon. Mr. Deberry, and the Hon. Mr. Orr, of S. C., passed through this city, on yesterday, on their way to Washington City—stopping at Guion's.

The former gentleman escaped very narrowly from drowning, on Thursday night, while crossing the Cape Fear River. Supposing, in the darkness of the night, that the flat had reached the shore, he stepped out, and was plunged into the stream, where the water was some 12 feet deep. He was rescued with difficulty, but sustained no farther injury, we are happy to say, than a thorough soaking.

☞ The "Standard" exposes the insincerity of its "wish that we may take a united stand" on the Slavery question, by its coarse and ungenerous assault upon that portion of Gov. MANLY's recent Message relative to this question. Is the Editor of the "Standard" willing to stand by the Compromise, faithfully observed? We want an unequivocal answer. Its course would indicate that it is for agitation, under any circumstances.

We understand that the Principal Clerks of the two Houses have appointed William H. Joyner, of Franklin, and Thomas H. Holmes, of Sampson County, Engrossing Clerks to the Legislature.

We are sincerely glad that the authorized report of Mr. Clay's speech recently delivered before the Kentucky Legislature, does not contain the very objectionable language which has been commented on.

PRESIDENT FILLMORE.

The Opposition journals too often exhibit a spirit of distrust and jealousy towards the President, which is not warranted by any of his public acts. His whole course in the Presidency has given every reason why the South should place in him a "generous confidence." We do not claim that he is a Southern more than a Northern man, but insist that he is a national patriot, and has exhibited a determination to do justice to all, and show partiality to none. It is the necessary consequence of such a position that he should be assailed by the ultras of both extremes, and denounced at the same moment by the seceders of the South and the Seward men of the North. But the conservative and patriotic men of all parties and all sections should sustain by their friendship and approbation one who so evidently looks to the rights and the interests of the whole country.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of South Carolina convened on the 25th ult. Col. R. F. W. ALSTON was elected President of the Senate, and Col. JAMES SIMONS Speaker of the House.

The Governor's message was transmitted on the 26th. We have only been able to give it a hasty glance. After a summary of local affairs, he enters upon a discussion of the relations existing between South Carolina and the General Government, and reviews in detail the provisions of the Compromise acts. These, of course, meet with the general condemnation already bestowed upon them by his fellow citizens, and he asserts that by the existence of those acts the power and independence of South Carolina, as a member of the Federal Union, are gone forever. He indulges no hope, that in her present condition, her rights will be restored to her, and declares "the time has arrived for her to resume the exercise of the power of self protection, which in the hour of unsuspecting confidence, she surrendered into foreign hands." He recognizes the necessity of the reorganization of the political system of the South, upon some safer and surer basis; but suggests the adoption of no specific act or plan to carry out his recommendations On the whole, this portion of the message, though firm and eloquent, is much more moderate in tone than we looked for, and the concluding paragraph, which we quote, does not forbid the hope that a mode of final and satisfactory adjustment may be discovered :

In recommending, as I do now, that South Carolina should interpose her sovereignty in order to protect her citizens, and that by co-operation with her aggrieved sister States, she may be able to aid in averting the doom which impends over the civil institutions of the South, it is fit and proper that as a Commonwealth, we should at an early day, to be designated by you, implore the God of our fathers for the pardon of our manifold transgressions, and invoke his protection and guidance in this our day of trouble and affliction, that he would graciously vouchsafe to enlighten the minds of our federal rulers, the North and its citizens, and direct them in the way of truth, of reason and of justice, and preserve a once happy political family from the unspeakable horrors of civil strife.

Also, in relation to the memorial to attach a part of the County of Gaston to Cleaveland—reported adversely, and begged to be discharged from farther consideration; which was concurred in.

Mr. Rayner, from the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported favorably to the bill to incorporate the Greenville and Raleigh Plank Road; with an amendment, limiting the amount of any yearly dividend to 25 per cent. Adopted.

Mr. Taylor moved to amend by adding a section, making individual stockholders liable for the acts of the company to the amount of their subscription, and called for the ayes and nays; but was finally induced to withdraw the amendment, and the bill was put on its second reading and passed.

Mr. Wilson from the committee on private bills reported in favor of the bill to incorporate Lumberton division No. 24 Sons of Temperance and the bill was put on its second reading and passed.

A message was received from the Senate, proposing to raise a joint select committee to visit and examine the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.

Mr. Wilson, from the committee on private bills, also reported favorably to the bill to incorporate Coleram Lodge, No. 25, I. O. O. F., in the County of Bertie; and the bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Johnston, from the same Committee, reported favoably to the Bill to incorporate Robeson Institute, in the County of Robeson, and also to incorporate Buena Vista Lodge No. 21, I. O O. F, in the town of Greensboro'; and both bills were put on their second reading and passed.

A message was received from the Senate calling the attention of the House to an error in printing the joint rules of the two Houses.

Mr. Pigott, from Committee on private bills, reported favorably to the bill to incorporate Coleram Female Academy, in the County of Bertie; and the bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Adams introduced a bill to incorporate Greensboro Division, No. 23, Sons of Temperance.

Mr. Cherry offered the following Resolutions:

WHEREAS, There are many conflicting opinions with regard to the aggressions of Northern fanatics upon the rights of the South.

Resolved, Therefore, that we will have the Fugitive Slave law or fight!

Which, on his motion, was made the special order of the day for the 24th of December.

Mr. Bridgers moved to take up the resolution relative to the North Carolina Rail Road, which was agreed to, and on his motion it was made the special order of the day for Tuesday week, 10th of December.

The Bills on their third reading being now in order, the bill to incoporate the Greenville and Raleigh Plank Road was taken up and passed.

Mr. Gordon, by permission of the Chair, introduced a bill to facilitate and economize the collection of the public Revenue. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Rayner, it was resolved that the use of the Commons Hall be granted this evening at 7 o'clock, to Gen. Harlee, of South Carolina, President of the Wilmington and Manchester Rail Road, and on motion of Mr. Avery, the use of the Hall was granted to the N. Carolina Bible Society on Monday evening next.

THE FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE AT HARRISBURG, PA.—The case of the two citizens of Clarke county, Va., who were held to bail by the judiciary of Harrisburg, in August last, on a charge of inciting a mob, which assembled while they were endeavoring to arrest several fugitive slaves claimed by them, came up for trial on Wednesday, when the parties were acquitted of the vexatious and frivolous charge.

SPANISH TOBACCO IN NORTH CAROLINA.—The editor of the Wilmington (N. C.) Commercial states that he has part of an experimental crop of tobacco, raised in that neighborhood, from Spanish seed. It is very superior, and the specimen warrants the belief that the sand-hills of North Carolina, under proper cultivation, will produce as fine tobacco as any country in the world.

REPORTED SERIOUS RIOT.—Pittsburg, Nov. 26.—A report is current of a serious riot among the Irish laborers on the railroad, a few miles below the city, in which some half dozen were killed.

The sheriff, with several military companies, have left to endeavor to suppress the riot.

The population of California is estimated by the California Courier at 131,000, of which number 15,000 were natives and residents before June 1st, 1849; 35,000 are foreigners, and 71,000 are Americans. The number of persons who returned by the Pacific mail steamers from April 1st, 1849, to June 1st, 1850, was 3,173.

A western editor announces the death of a lady of his acquaintance, and touchingly adds: "In her decease, the sick have lost an invaluable friend. Long will she seem to stand at their bedside, as she was wont, with the balm of consolation in one hand, and a cup of rhubarb in the other."

GEORGE THOMPSON.

This miscreant is still prowling about Massachusetts, and addressing public audiences. We should never hear the last of it, if a British member of the Parliament should visit South Carolina, and endeavor to stir up disaffection there against the General Government. Why is this thing permitted in Massachusetts unless she be lost to patriotism and self-respect?

The Petersburg Intelligencer announces that the private subscription to the stock of the Southside railroad, taken up under the resolution of the late Town meeting, and upon the condition that each subscription shall be binding when the aggregate should amount to the sum of $150,000, has been more than made up. The city has already taken in its corporate capacity, $100,000, and "only awaits the authority to be given by the Legislature, to subscribe for an additional sum of $200 000."

An humble spire, pointing heavenward from an obscure church, speaks of man's nature, man's dignity, man's destiny, more eloquently than all the columns and arches of Greece and Rome, the mausoleums of Asia, or the pyramids of Egypt.

An Irishman writing a sketch of his life, says he early ran away from his father, because he discovered he was only his uncle.

HARD PUSHED FOR A COMPLAINT.—The only fault "N. P. W." can find with the peerless Parodist is the lack of a moustache! What a defect in a Prima donna; not to belong to the hairy stocracy.

MARRIED.

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1850.

Fresh Arrivals from the Latest Importations!

THOMAS R. FENTRESS,

MERCHANT TAYLOR, RALEIGH N. C.

ONE DOOR ABOVE THE POST OFFICE.

THE Subscriber respectfully announces to his friends and patrons—to the members of the Legislature—and to strangers visiting the City, that he continues to carry on the Tailoring Business in all its branches at his old stand, where he shall be happy to see them and sell them great bargains. The subscriber had deemed it unnecessary recently to advertise his business, as he was so well known throughout the State; but for fear his old friends and customers might be under the impression that he was carried away by the great "tornado" which passed Northwards a few days ago, he has thought it best to inform them that he is still in business and hopes they will give him a call. He would say to old friends and customers that the liberal patronage he has received since he has been here, has cemented him still more closely to the good old State of North Carolina; and he trusts that their patronage will continue to be bestowed on one who feels he kindly appreciates it; and for his part there shall be nothing lacking to give entire satisfaction. He might say more, but it is sufficient for him to say that he has the feelings of a North Carolinian. He is permanently located here--his interests are here --and here he expects to live and die.

The Subscriber is a friend and well-wisher to all mechanical business in the "Old North State." He thinks it the duty of our people to encourage our own hard-working mechanics, and keep them with us, and not drive them from our borders by encouraging manufacturers at a distance from us. We may wish for good times and State improvements, but we will never see them until we come to depend on our own mechanics, on home manufactures and home industry. When we come to do this then wi l we see our Cities and Towns flourishing; and our means will not be sent off to the "great City" of New York or Boston for articles that can be made in this State as well as at either of these places, and on as good terms.

The Subscriber has on hand a beautiful assortment of GOODS, selected by himself in person in the Northern Markets, of the latest and most approved styles and patterns. His Goods were purchased this Fall, and are entirely new. They were bought on as good terms as those of any House in this City; and he flatters himself that he can offer as liberal if not better bargains than any other Estabiishment in this City or in the United States. Call and examine for yourselves. You must be your own judges, and you will find this no mere "puff." The Subscriber considers it unnecessary to say any thing about the skill in cutting or making, as his business is conducted by himself; and he will leave it to those who deal with him to judge of his capacity in this respect. His experience in business is such, and he has been so long before the public, that he will not stoop to commend his own skill and attainments. He leaves it to his friends and customers to judge of his superiority over many who presume to call themselves Tailors, or Cutters, or "Artists"--if you please. His workmen cannot be surpassed by any, North or South, and he invites the public to call and try him before purchasing elsewhere. He pledges his word for good bargains, as he is determined to sell low.

His Stock comprises every article kept in similar Establishments. There is nothing you may call for which you cannot get. Call and try the well known Establishment, one door North of the Post Office.

The Subscriber's Stock comprises the Super black French Cloths and Cassimers--plain and doeskin, of all qualities and prices, and a splendid assortment of fancy Cloth, which for colors and quality cannot be surpassed. Also, a beautiful lot of plain black Satin Vestings, and a superb article of fancy French Silk and Satins for parties, with a choice variety of Fancy Cassimers for winter wear, and a very large lot of fancy French Cassimers, which will be disposed of on a very small advance. Also, a general assortment of fancy articles, consisting of lamb's wool, merino and silk Under shirts and Drawers--Dress Shirts, black and white kid, merino, and fancy cassimere Gloves--Half hose, cotton and merino--black and fancy silk Cravats; all of which are offered at uncommonly low prices. Also, a beautiful lot of READY-MADE CLOTHING, made in my own House, and which will be disposed of at the most reasonable prices.

Call and examine for yourselves.

N. B. Orders from a distance will be thankfully received and promptly attended to. The London and Paris Fashions regularly received.

"WHOEVER DARE THESE 'BOOTS' DISPLACE, MUST MEET BOMBASTES, FACE TO FACE."

Alfred Mitchell, alias "BOOTS," for short, and by way of dignity, respectfully informs his numerous customers, that he has recently fitted up his Establishment, in the best style, and is now thoroughly prepared to carry on his business as BARBER, just "as it used to was," with the exception that he thinks he has improved by practice both in skill and manners.

The Members of the approaching Legislature, and my old customers especially, of that body, will always find me ready to shave, and trim hair, in the quickest, easiest, and most fashionable manner; and if any should prefer the old fashoin, "Boots" will be entirely agreeable, and conform to the tastes and wishes of his customers.

On application, Ladies and Gentlemen can have their Hair curled most elegantly, according to the prevailing fashions.

No reference is made to particular gentlemen—my qualifications must be judged of by the community which I have served in my line of business, for a number of years.

Hair will also be cleared of dandruff, and if requested, dyed any coler, to suit the costomers.

My establishment is on Fayetteville Street, within two doors of Yarbrough's New Hotel.

ALFRED MITCHELL,
Hair Dresser and Barber.

Southern Home Manufactory.

RALEIGH, N. C.

MUCH has been said in Congress, by Southern members, about the rights of the South—This community and surrounding country now have an opportunity of patronizing their own merchants and those who make up gentlemen's wearing apparel, by calling at the Proprietor's new Establishment, opposite the Post office.

The Preprietor, having made the SCIENCE of cutting Gentlemen's fashionable clothing his study, in the most fashionable Cities, for many years, is now prepared to give satisfaction to all who may want their clothing made. Gentlemen furnishing cloth and trimmings, will thus give employment to many in the City of Raleigh.

Those who only wish their garments cut shall have them warranted to fit, and at moderate prices. Gentlemen's garments altered and repaired at the shortest notice.

The New York and Philadelphia Fashions for the Fall and Winter just received.

The "Bug" also at Home again.

I HAVE just returned the second time from Boston, N. York, and Philadelphia, having spent nearly all of August and September in said Cities, getting up our CLOTHING, every article of which was cut by himself, and made up under my own inspection; and I presume there is no one in North Carolina now, who would be verdant enough to question my capacity after the eloquent tribute paid to my 'artistic skill, in our last Superior Court, by Judge, Counsel on both sides, witnesses and Jurors. I refer to the case of "Biggs vs. Oliver"—action for damages, in which I had to pay $250, in consequence of my extended reputation.

Come in, if you please, and assist me in paying off the judgment by buying our goods. Who is there in North Carolina, who has not heard of the Hon. George E. Badger, the Hon. Wm. H. Haywood, Jr., and 'Bug' Oliver, Why 'their fame is no more to be hemmed in by State lines than their talents are to be circumscribed within the same narrow limits.'

We are connected, as all our customers know—and if they don't know it, they may—with no Northern House—but we are Tailors ourselves—buy our own goods, and import quite as many of what we purchase in proportion to our business, as any house in this State or out of it. There is no establishment here or elsewhere that possesses any advantage over us. We buy where every body else buys, and we think we understand our business and buy as cheaply. We say our clothing is equal to any offered for sale in North Carolina, and, we think superior, being Judges ourselves of clothing. Of that though, we will leave the public to decide, when they examine for themselves. One thing is certain—without intending to reflect upon any one—we will sell our clothing cheaper than the same articles can be bought for in any of the Northern Cities, and as cheap as any body that comes here, who does not steal his clothing ready made

Our stock embracing Drab, Black, Blue, Green, Gray, and other OVERCOATS from 6 to $20 and upwards. Cloaks, full circle, $18 upwards. Frock, dress, and Sack COATS from 7 to $12 and upwards PANTALOONS, all colors and prices, from $4 to $8. VESTS, all kinds and all sizes, at all prices from $1,25 to $5. In fact, every thing that can be found in any similar establishment in the Union.

We are North Carolinians. We are permanently located here, and if we sell as cheap as others, why not give us the preference? If we do not sell as good goods at as small a price, we will not ask your patronage.
